

Graphic Design Intern

Job Description

Mission U-Too, based in Bastrop, TX, is currently looking for a Graphic Design Intern to join their team.

Position Description: The Graphic Design Intern will assist with designing materials for print production and online, and will be working on anything from event invitations to business cards to social media graphics. The candidate should be able to work independently, take direction well, and be a good communicator. We are looking for someone who brings a fresh design perspective and is willing to learn, but also can stay within branding guidelines and produce solid work.

Requirements: Candidates should be well-versed in Adobe Creative Suite, specifically Photoshop and Illustrator, and Microsoft Office, and have access to a Mac computer. We are looking for someone who is currently pursuing a degree in graphic design or a related field, and located within the greater Bastrop area, including Austin, and be available for onsite meetings once a week. In addition, candidates must be familiar and agree with our Statement of Faith.

This unpaid position is for 10 hours a week with flexible hours and will report directly to the Marketing Director.

Mission U-Too is a Christian non-profit organization that feeds people physically and spiritually. We began serving the Bastrop area in 2009 and today have grown to serve in multiple communities across Texas. Every week we serve thousands of burgers to anyone who needs a meal and share the love and message of Christ. We also provide disaster relief to communities in need across the country.
